FOOD & DRINK

1-01 THE TREASURES OF TUSCANY

Bernie Keaveney Fee: $75.00
Thursday, February 7 6:30-8:30PM
Heritage, 33 N Main St Sherborn

Tuscany, a region steeped in history, shaped by antiquity and turmoil boasts some of the most historic and prestigious wines in the world! It is often described as one giant nursery, positioned at the heart of Italy, on the Tyrrhenian Sea, they literally grow vines everywhere! From the notable Chianti and Chianti Classico regions to the esteemed Brunello Di Montalcino wines, this class will educate the novice, while additionally pleasing the expert! What are Super Tuscans and where do they come from? Tuscany offers so much more than Chianti and incredible white wines. Do you want to learn about the Old Tuscany and the New Tuscany? If so, this is the class for you!

1-02 WORLD OF TEAS

Paul Angiolillo Fee: $25.00
Monday, March 11 7:00-8:30PM
DSHS Teachers Room

The most popular drink in the world-and its popularity keeps growing as more people discover its stimulating qualities and healthful benefits. Not bad for a modest, non-flowering variety of camellia plant (camellia sinensis). There are hundreds of kinds of teas, depending on the plant variety, climate conditions, and ways of harvesting, curing, and drying. Rich, aromatic Chinese Yunnans and Keemuns, malty Indian Assams, delicate Darjeelings, crisp Ceylons, and plummy Oolong, as well as green and white teas, and new kinds from places like Nepal and Kenya. We'll sample at least eight different loose-leaf teas and discuss them. Sweet and savory snacks will compliment the tastings and you'll take home plenty of tea samples. Bring a favorite cup or mug to class.

1-03 THE LEGACY OF THE LOIRE VALLEY

Bernie Keaveney Fee: $75.00
Thursday, March 21 6:30-8:30PM
Heritage, 33 N Main St Sherborn

Have you ever felt like taking a boat-ride and meandering through the crests and crevices of the Loire Valley, discovering all its charms and little hamlets, its breath taking scenery and castles? The Loire Valley is beautiful, the vast majority of it has been declared a UNESCO world heritage site! The Loire Valley has a world renowned reputation, deservedly acquired, due to the magnificent wines it produces! One of Bernie's favorite wine regions; it is often misunderstood and the wines from here are a chef's dream. Some of the most food-driven wines in the world.

1-04 DISCOVERING THE GEMS OF PORTUGAL

Jen Ziskin Fee: $75.00
Thursday, April 4 6:30-8:30PM

Did you know Travel & Leisure named Portugal the Travel Destination of the year in 2016? Join, Jen Ziskin, co-owner of Heritage of Sherborn & La Morra as she takes you on a guided tour of the secret gems of Portuguese wines. You will taste wines from the Douro, made famous by Port, but now exploding with vivacious and elegant red wines, the Alentejo, & Lisboa to name a few of the regions you will explore. Chef Josh will compliment the tasting with small bites of authentic Portuguese cuisine.

1-05 THE CHARM OF CAMPANIA

Bernie Keaveney Fee: $75.00
Thursday, April 11 6:30-8:30PM
Heritage, 33 N. Main St. Sherborn

Campania, the Southern Italian region that encompasses the ruins of Pompeii and Paestum, the decadent Amalfi Coast's towns of Positano and Ravello, Mt Vesuvius, Capri and the fascinating city of Naples. It has long been a destination for lovers of food and wine. To the ancient Romans it was the Hamptons and Napa combined. The Hamptons for beaches and fun; Napa for the best food and tastiest wine. Naples, in the Renaissance was once one of Europe's greatest cities and no nobleman could call himself worldly if he did not include it on his "grand tour." Why does Campania have more of the highest classification of Italian wines that can be awarded? Want to learn more! All wines provided for tasting; a Power-Point presentation will be offered: all wines tasted will be offered for purchase and discounts will be available.

2-03 YOU CAN AFFORD COLLEGE IF.....

College Funding Advisors Fee: $25.00pp
$40/couple*
Tuesday, March 12 7:00-9:00PM
DSHS Room 122

You PLAN in advance; you UNDERSTAND the financial aid process; You ACT early enough to be successful. Financial Aid goes to the families who plan and act in advance-before December of the child's sophomore year of high school. This course will teach you the concepts and strategies that will help you maximize your financial aid by understanding the process and why implementing strategies may increase a family's eligibility even if you have a "high income" or own a business. The greatest amount of financial aid goes to families who act in the early years of high school.

REMEMEBER: Procrastination equals less financial aid. All schools are not alike, so it is important to know your options and opportunities. A free financial aid analysis will be available to all attendees. For more information, please visit our website at: www.collegefundingadvisors.com.

2-04 PREPARING FOR RETIREMENT

Ryland Hanstad Fee: $25.00pp
$40/couple*
Thursday, March 14 6:30-8:30PM
DSHS Room 206

Have you been thinking about retirement? You could stay up later and watch old movies, linger over the newspaper. Besides the many wonderful benefits, retirement also brings some challenges related to finances, health, family and other issues. In this class we will discuss topics and changes that you will face as you enter retirement, and suggest specific steps you can take to help ensure that this new period of your life is secure and enjoyable.

2-05 UNDERSTANDING MEDICARE

Dan Williams Fee: $25.00pp.
$40/couple*
Wednesday, March 20 7:00-9:00PM
DSHS Room 206

If you are close to age 65 or already on Medicare, this class is for you! This class is designed to fully enlighten you on how Medicare works and the different health care choices available to those ages 65+. How are parts A, B, C & D integrated? What is Medicare Advantage? What are the pros and cons of HMO's, PPO's and Medigap plans? Should I take Medicare if I am still employed? How do I avoid late sign up penalties? Does any part of Medicare cover long-term care expenses? These questions and many more will be answered in this very important class.

*Please note:

When registering on line as a couple, the rate will appear as per person. When we activate the payments we will adjust the tuition to reflect the couple rate.

4.

2-06 THE LATEST LONG TERM CARE ASSET PROTECTION STRATEGIES

Dan Williams Fee: $25.00pp
$40/couple*
Monday, April 1 7:00-9:00PM
DSHS Room 206

The high cost of long term care can wipe out a family's life savings in a short period of time. Unfortunately, many families are faced with this situation, finding themselves at the mercy of an under-funded government Medicaid system with limited choices. Recent legislative changes have created many questions surrounding planning techniques. How can I protect my home? What is the penalty for giving assets away? Are my assets protected if I put them in a trust? When is long-term care insurance worthwhile to consider? What if my loved one is already in a nursing home, can they still protect their assets? All these questions and more will be clearly answered in this very important class.
